JEWELRY, ART & ANTIQUE SHOW

THE PALM BEACH JEWELRY, ART & ANTIQUE SHOW BRINGS LEADING INTERNATIONAL GALLERIES AND WORLD-CLASS TREASURES TO THE PALM BEACH COUNTY CONVENTION CENTER

(Palm Beach, FL) – The Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show will make its annual return to the Palm Beach County Convention Center February 14-18, 2014, Presidents' Day Weekend. Presented by the Palm Beach Show Group, this important event will feature more than 180 international exhibitors, an engaging lecture series and an expanded Designer Showcase area.

The show has become a hallmark of the Palm Beach social season and has set a benchmark of excellence in the art, antique and jewelry industry. The show is known for bringing thousands of works of art and antiquities from domestic and international galleries, in addition to fabulous antique and estate jewels from many of the world's elite jewelers. The Palm Beach Show boasts an enviable selection of antiquities and upon its return, will draw tens of thousands of private collectors, museum curators, investors and interior designers who are eager to view and purchase some of the most unique and coveted treasures in the world.

The Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show will kick off with an Opening Night Preview Party on Friday, February 14, benefiting Hope For Depression Research Foundation to assist with their initiative to fund innovative, international research based on affective neuroscience into origins, diagnosis, treatment and prevention of depression and its related mood and other emotional disorders – bipolar disorder, dysthemia, postpartum depression, post-traumatic stress disorder, anxiety disorders and suicide – with the ultimate goal of finding a cure.

The Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show Opening Night Preview Party has consistently drawn attendees who love art, including museum curators, political dignitaries, collectors and the social elite. The invitation-only evening provides a first-look of the Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show offerings before they are available to the public.

Items at the show will span every genre, juxtaposing many periods and movements. Visitors will have the opportunity to view and purchase fine art from across the broad spectrum of Old Master, German Expressionist, 18th and 19th century European, American Regionalist, Modern and Contemporary. They will also have the opportunity to view some of the world's finest collections of silver, glass, textiles, sculpture, porcelain, Asian art, furniture, antique and estate jewelry and more.

The 2014 show returns with an impressive list of leading international galleries, many of which will bring works never before seen in Palm Beach.

With an emphasis on design, the Show will also feature the HOPE Designer Showcase, curated by renowned interior designer, Scott Snyder. The HOPE Designer Showcase will feature the designs of Snyder and several leading interior designers, creating room vignettes utilizing the art, antiques and accessories from the exhibitors in the show, incorporating magnificent pieces into room settings.

Adding to the show's cultural experience, the Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show will present its 11th Annual educational lecture series that is free and open to the public as well as show attendees. The lecture series will include presentations on a wide array of captivating topics by respected dealers and industry experts, including Peter Trippi, Editor-in-Chief, Fine Art Connoisseur Magazine; Brian J. McCarthy, Interior Designer and Author; Carolle Thibaut-Pomerantz, French Heritage Society; Edward Faber of Aaron Faber Gallery, and Paula Crevoshay, jewelry industry expert, Liza Laserow, Laserow Antiques & Design; and Gordon Lewis, Senior Director and VP of the Fine Arts Conservancy.

The Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show continues to be the largest and most important show of its kind and remains a must-see for both the art connoisseur and the art-curious.
