Georg Jensen
Booth # 824/925

Harald Nielsen's 6-branch candelabrum 751, designed in 1935, can be seen as the very essence of Art Déco.

The style blends the era's exoticism with the tendency toward stylized lines that was starting to take hold in the design world during the Roaring 20's. Though it is marked by that unique period, Déco has transcended a rich history to become timeless.
