16th ANNUAL PALM BEACH JEWELRY, ART & ANTIQUE SHOW ANNOUNCES THE PALM BEACH LECTURE SERIES SCHEDULE FEBRUARY 13-19, 2019 • Presidents' Day Weekend

The Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show, now in its sixteenth year, welcomes back the annual Lecture Series featuring four days of mesmerizing presentations from experts in their fields. All lectures are will be located in Room 1DE at the Palm Beach County Convention Center and free to the general public, as well as attendees of the show.

2019 Lecture Series Schedule

Friday, February 15

3pm .....

Exploring Trends in Private Collectors, Collections and Museums

Speaker: Barbara Chamberlain,
Director Art Collection Management, AIG

Synopsis: An increasingly significant amount of our cultural heritage is now in private collections. Numbering in the tens of thousands in just the U.S., private collections span a great variety of objects reflecting the wide range of enthusiasts who collect them. In this lecture we will explore the art and collectibles market, who high net worth collectors are, what they collect and what motivates them, and some of the challenges they face.

Saturday, February 16

1pm .....

The Creative Process

Speaker: Roger Dean,
Trading Boundaries

Synopsis: Roger Dean continues to amaze, to furnish the creative world with his fantastic forms, his exquisite grasp of color, composition and the aptness of his creative inspiration. Join one of the most influential artists of the past 100 years as he discusses the creative process and where ideas come from.

3pm .....

Why collect?

Speaker: Ben Macklowe,
Macklowe Gallery

Synopsis: The informational talk covers how to translate a love, passion or interest into a collection, how to become an informed collector, how to use collections as social and networking tools, and, of course, the multitude of ways in which collecting enriches our lives. Young or entirely new collectors will find guidance, direction and encouragement, while more advanced collectors will be offered direction in reading their marketplace and optimizing their collection as a tool to enhance other arenas of their lives.

Sunday, February 17

1pm .....

Appreciating Tiffany as Tiffany Appreciates

Speaker: Arlie Sulka,
Lillian Nassau LLC

Synopsis: Having followed the market for the work of Louis C. Tiffany and Tiffany Studios, Arlie Sulka has observed a continuing and growing interest among old and new collectors. Since the mid-1950's when the late Mrs. Lillian Nassau almost single-handedly created the revival of interest in Tiffany Studios, the important works of Tiffany Studios have steadily appreciated as collectors have become increasingly sophisticated and as more detailed information about Tiffany Studios has been revealed by Tiffany scholars. During her talk, Ms. Sulka will make comparisons of prices when the objects were first offered for sale by Tiffany Studios with their present-day values, tracing their increases over the past 6 decades and describing how great Tiffany collections are being formed today.

3pm .....

Botticelli, Leonardo, Michelangelo and the Antique

Speaker: Rocky Ruggiero, PH.D.
Art History Professor and Italian Renaissance Expert

Synopsis: This lecture will explore the relationship between ancient Greco-Roman art and the then contemporary Renaissance artists Botticelli, Leonardo Da Vinci and Michelangelo; and how three distinct antiques -the Medici Venus, the Equestrian Statue of Marcus Aurelius, and the Laocoon -each became the inspiration for respective Renaissance masterpieces -the Birth of Venus, the never-realized Equestrian monument of Francesco Sforza, and the Sistine Chapel ceiling.

Monday, February 18

1pm .....

Art, Jewelry and Design: New Perspectives

Speaker: Milagros Bello, PHD,
Curator's Voice Art Projects

Synopsis: The lecture will survey the status and correlations of contemporary jewelry and its new perspectives into art and design. It will present artworks of important masters in jewelry design, and it will discuss why jewelry is located nowadays at the epicenter of the high art.

2pm .....

Marjorie Merriweather Post's Spectacular Gems and Jewelry Collection

Speaker: Kate Markert,
Executive Director of Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens

Introduced by Karen Stone Talwar,
CEO of Adventures of Art: Introducer of Kate Markert

Synopsis: As the founder of the only company that offers jewelry-centric tours, it was natural for Karen Stone Talwar to identify Kate Markert as a perfect key speaker at this year's Palm Beach Jewelry Show. Ms. Markert's topic is exceptional: "Marjorie Merriweather Post's Spectacular Gems and Jewelry Collection," and she knows it better than anyone through her role as Executive Director of Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens –Post's former residence in Washington DC.

A Tale of Sculpture

Speaker: Ron Cavalier,
Cavalier Galleries

Synopsis: A talk on the legacy of sculpture, from its early origins to the successful sculptors of today. One of the oldest forms of art, sculpture has retained a prominent role in society since its beginning, though the role is constantly evolving.
