The new GYSPY collection was inspired by the designer's passion for travelling and her "nomad-like" upbringing. Representing the brand's concept of 'barefoot luxury' the collection surprises with new silhouettes, such as bangles and hoops. The GYSPY bangles stand out not only due to their Boho-inspired aesthetic and high-quality finish with an all-around design but especially due to their extraordinary design innovation allowing a versatile combinability of multiple bangles creating breathtaking new looks.
