M.S Rau to Present an Important Winston Churchill Painting at The Palm Beach Show
One of Many Rare Works of Art Alongside Iconic Artist like Renoir, Brasillier and Picasso

West Palm Beach, FL – With the Palm Beach Show returning to the Palm Beach Convention Center on Feb. 17-22, 2022, I would like to introduce you to long-time exhibitor Bill Rau, the third-generation owner of internationally recognized fine art and antiques gallery M.S. Rau.

You might remember that last year Angelina Jolie sold a Winston Churchill painting she acquired from M.S. Rau for $11.5 million, smashing the auction record for an artwork by the British Prime Minister. Bill has recently sourced another painting by Churchill entitled St. Malo which he will unveil at the show. This important work was acquired directly from a descendant of Churchill and will have its first public viewing at the Palm Beach Show.

Bill will also showcase other incredible treasures worth tens of millions of dollars, including works by iconic artists like Renoir, Brasillier and Picasso, gorgeous estate and designer jewelry from the likes of JAR, Cartier and Van Cleef & Arpels, rare antiques and one-of-a-kind items owned by historical figures and celebrities, from Elvis and Prince to Napoleon and Paul Revere.

Here are a few examples of the items that M.S. Rau will be bringing to Palm Beach:

St. Malo by Sir Winston Churchill

About M.S. Rau

Founded in 1912, M.S. Rau stands as one of North America's most respected fine art, antiques and jewelry galleries. Led by third- and fourth-generation owners Bill and Rebecca Rau, this family-run business operates globally, discovering items around the world and placing them in international collections, both public and private. The 40,000-square-foot gallery at 622 Royal Street in the French Quarter of New Orleans features carefully selected works from a diverse array of artists and makers who have defined the fine and decorative arts over the centuries. These include Claude Monet, John Singer Sargent, Rembrandt van Rijn, Tiffany & Co., Paul Revere, Thomas Chippendale, Louis Comfort Tiffany, René Lalique and many others. Over the last decade, M.S. Rau has also produced museum-quality exhibitions annually, both in its New Orleans gallery and at a selection of prestigious art and antique fairs around the country.
