The large-scale installation is an enchanted secret garden of the Venice lagoon. An aviary where the birds that live and migrate take on magical and precious forms that only Murano glass, unique in the world, can create and reflect. An installation that creates a space for inspiration and exploration, transporting visitors through art to rediscover the beauty of nature and creating conditions for our imagination to soar.

46 glass sculptures, poetic birds, magical creatures that populate this aviary evoke the luminous essence of Venice in a play of reflections and light, the same light that flows through Venice between its bridges between the sky, the earth and the water in a lagoon of springtime, which becomes the most exquisite garden into Palm Beach, the stories of these creatures come vibrantly to life.

The colors of these glass sculptures, works of art of unparalleled beauty and originality, contain the story of the extraordinary journey that birds make and which Anna Paola Cibin was able to shape with sensitivity and mastery in the transition from the liquid and incandescent form of glass to the solid one, the lightness of transparencies, reflections and colors that capture the voice of typically human feelings.

For this reason, for those who empathically enter Funny Birds Secret Garden, they will be able to immerse themselves, in the transition from fluid to static, in the transparent message that each bird tells, recognizing the cuckoo's streaks, the starlings' spots or the arabesques of robins and doves. Because deep down, everyone would like, at least for once, to be able to spread their wings and fly into new skies.

Presented by the Palm Beach Show Group, the Palm Beach Show will take place over Presidents' Day Weekend, February 15-20, 2024 at the Palm Beach County Convention Center.
