PALM BEACH SHOW ANNOUNCES CURATED GUIDED TOURS AND EXCLUSIVE PRESENTATIONS FOR 2026

February 12-17, 2026 | Presidents' Day Weekend | Palm Beach Convention Center

Palm Beach, FL (January 28, 2026) — The Palm Beach Show Group is excited to reveal a robust lineup of curated guided tours and exclusive presentations as part of the 2026 Palm Beach Show programming. Designed to enrich the visitor experience, this year's schedule offers attendees a unique opportunity to engage with expert insights, immersive discussions, and intimate explorations of art, design, jewelry, and collecting.

The 2026 Palm Beach Show opens with the Opening Preview Party on Thursday, February 12, offering an elegant first look at the fair. Throughout the show's run — Friday, February 13 through Tuesday, February 17 — guests are invited to participate in a series of curated guided tours and special presentations held directly on the show floor at the Palm Beach County Convention Center. In addition to guided tours, the Palm Beach Show will feature an exclusive presentation by Fred Savage, founder of Timepiece Grading Specialists (TGS), on Saturday, February 14 from 4-5pm. Savage will share his personal journey into watch collecting and discuss how TGS is transforming transparency and confidence in the pre-owned watch market.

"We are delighted to offer a multi-layered program that brings deeper understanding and appreciation to the works on display," said Scott Diament President and CEO of the Palm Beach Show Group. "These guided tours and presentations enhance the collecting experience and provide meaningful engagement for both seasoned collectors and new enthusiasts."

Advance purchase and registration is required for curated tours and the exclusive presentation. Visitors are encouraged to explore the full 2026 programming schedule and reserve their spots online.
